

1. The Graduate

22421146 Simon Gentle

2. The Award

Bachelor of Trauma and Healing

Detail:

The Bachelor of Trauma and Healing degree is an undergraduate qualification consisting of 24 units and normally takes three years full-time study or the part-time equivalent. The course is identified at Level 7 of the Australian Qualifications Framework. This course responds to the documented demand within both Indigenous and non-Indigenous communities for courses which address the effects of trauma and which facilitate skills for healing. Admission is usually based on secondary or tertiary results however a range of alternative pathways are available. The language of instruction is English.

3. Awarding Institution

Southern Cross University (SCU) is a comprehensive public University, established by the "Southern Cross University Act 1993" and is listed as an Australian University on the Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency's (TEQSA) National Register of Higher Education Providers. SCU provides all students with internationally recognised educational opportunities and our professional and contemporary courses are supported by highly-qualified staff and personalised learning experiences. SCU undertakes world-class research in fields that are regionally relevant and globally significant. We value Scholarship; Innovation; Social Justice; Ethical Behaviour; Sustainable Practice; and Engagement. Our graduates are equipped to live a life they value and to be effective global citizens.

Our Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS) provider numbers is 01241G

Additional information about Southern Cross University can be found at www.scu.edu.au

The Australian Higher Education Graduation Statement is provided by Australian higher education institutions to graduating students on completion of the requirements for a particular higher education award. It provides a description of the nature, level, context and status of studies that were pursued by the individual named. Its purpose is to assist in both national and international recognition of Australian qualifications and to promote international mobility and professional recognition of graduates.

Certification

Date 15 July 2019

Donna Moffitt
Director,
Student Administration Services